IFOR'S WELSH WAGYU

Ifor has been farming in mid-Wales all of his life and in 1983 established his Upper Bryntalach Farm where he started to breed his Wagyu. Wagyu meat is highly prized for its unique marbling, tenderness and buttery soft flavour - Wagyu simply translates from Japanese into "Cow", which there are four main breeds: Kuroge Washu, Akage Washu, Nikon Tankau Washu and the Makaku Washu.

Ifor breeds the Kuroge Washu in a very special way on his farm in Montgomery which is only 65 miles from Aberdunant Hall. They are fed in rich clover pastures, grass pastures and also with hay and a blended grain. Ifor also gives his Wagyu Monty's Beer on a daily basis and looks after their wellbeing with an occasional massage and gives them jackets when the weather turns colder.

Wagyu Fillet Steak

The ultimate tender steak with a soft buttery flavour. Recommended rare.
